HIGHEST ODDS IN THE MARKET!

→ If you want your players to have access to a complete gaming experience make sure to add Entraction's betting module to your portfolio. With industry highs in customer payback, Entraction offers a very attractive sports book. We offer a wide range of games for your customers to place their bets on and we have a fast settlement of bets.

Entraction offers you one of the betting market's best and highest odds, which will attract gambling beginners as well as skilled and experienced gamblers. We have a user-friendly but advanced system to manage the placed bets. The betting module is flexible and allows for partners to choose individual payback margins. The betting application runs directly in the browser which makes it easy to integrate. Moreover, we employ highly experienced odds compilers and a state-of-the-art risk management system based on multiple parameters and levels.

As a partner to Entraction you can compile your own odds and choose which odds you want to market on your website!
